THE LATIT

With the testimony of Mrs. Mary Copley Thaw, whose late husband's denunciation of William Jennings Bryan, the testimony at the insanity hearing of Harry K. Thaw was closed at White Plains, N. Y., yesterday. The lawyers will sum up the evidence this morning, and Justice Mills promised to file his decision with the clerk next Thursday morning.

After a sharp tilt between the attorneys, the naval board of inquiry investigating at Annapolis the death of Lieut. James N. Sutton decided that letters written by Mrs. Sutton should be read, but that the contents should not be made public. The letters contain serious charges against the officers who are defendants at the inquiry.

The prospects of another outbreak in Spain seem to depend on the course the authorities decide to pursue regarding the prisoners that have been in the Montjuich fortress since the disorders of last week. If they are condemned to death it is said that 20,000 men are prepared to open a guerrilla warfare upon the Government.

The street car strike in Evansville, Ind., which began on May 20, was declared off yesterday after long-continued negotiations between the company and the union members. Forty of the men will return to work, but the company does not recognize the union.

The survivors of the "Orphan Brigade" held their annual reunion at Cave City, about seventy-five veterans marched through the city, and a basket dinner was provided for several thousand people. Capt. John H. Weller, of Louisville, was re-elected commander.

John Dugan, a miner, was shot to death near Kellyville, a mining suburb of Danville, Ill., by John Jagers. The murderer escaped, but later was surrounded by a posse in a cornfield, and when ordered to surrender blew out his own brains with a revolver shot.

W. D. Klausman, charged with operating a "bucket shop" in Cincinnati, was found guilty yesterday. Klausman was connected with the Consolidated Stock and Grain Company, whose place of business was twice raided on orders of the county prosecutor.

A further postponement has been made in the trial of the two American missionaries, the Rev. William Morrison and the Rev. W. H. Sheppard, on charges of libel, at Leopoldville, Belgian Congo. The hearing will now come up September 24.

President Taft left Washington for Beverly, Mass., where he will spend the summer. The itinerary of the President's journey through the West and South, which was announced yesterday, covers 13,000 miles. The trip will take sixty days.

Returns received last night from Thursday's State Democratic primary in Virginia show increased gains for William Hodges Mann, candidate for the gubernatorial nomination, over Harry St. George Tucker.

Thomas McDonald, a farmer of Center Junction, Ia., was beaten to death by two masked robbers early yesterday. The robbers escaped.

Capt. Wade Brown, of Paducah, has been appointed custodian of the new Capitol.

CRISIS FORCED BY EAGER JAPS

Intend To Go Ahead With Mukden Railroad.

Tired of Waiting For China To Give Consent.

Powers Are Notified of Her Decision.

HISTORY OF NEGOTIATIONS.

Tokio, Aug. 7.—Japan to-day officially notified the Powers of her intention to proceed immediately with the reconstruction and improving of the Antung-Mukden railroad without the consent of China, diplomatic negotiations having failed to overcome Chinese opposition.

The note outlines the entire course of negotiations relative to the improvement of the railroad up to the present. It declares that throughout the discussions China had had recourse to her well-known policy of obstruction and procrastination, has evaded the just and reasonable demands of Japan and raised collateral questions regarding police authority and other matters, thus delaying a settlement.

Japan's Rights Disregarded.

The communication declares that since June 24, when the reply was received, Japan has endeavored to induce China to reconsider her decision and recede from her untenable position, but that the Chinese Government has maintained an unyielding and uncompromising attitude.

The Ultimatum.

The final paragraph of the note contains Japan's ultimatum, as follows: "In this connection the Imperial Government is compelled to take independent action and to proceed to carry out the necessary works of reconstruction and improvement according to treaty rights."

The climax of the protracted controversy was not entirely unexpected. The highest authorities do not believe, however, that the Japanese action indicates anything approaching war with China.

DISPUTE OVER AGREEMENT

Leads To Trouble Between China and Her Little Neighbor.

Peking, Aug. 6.—The negotiations between China and Japan for the construction by Japan of the Antung-Mukden railroad, in accordance with the convention signed several years ago by China, then Chinese Minister of Foreign Affairs, and Baron Komura, the Japanese Foreign Secretary, which have been in progress at Mukden since 1907, have failed, owing to disputes between the contracting parties arising from the interpretation of clauses in the convention providing for the policing of the line, etc.

China Is Informed.

Japan has formally intimated to China her intention to proceed with the reconstruction of the line within a time limit, and has asked the Powers to support her action. The Japanese Government, on charges of libel, at Leopoldville, Belgian Congo. The hearing will now come up September 24.

BUILT DURING RUSSIAN WAR,

And Railroad Is of Great Strategic Importance To Japan.

Tokio, Aug. 6.—The question of the reconstruction of the existing railroad line from Antung to the Yalu River, to Mukden, Manchuria, by Japan, is beginning to attract attention, both here and in China. This line was built by Japan during the war with Russia. After the war a treaty was signed between Japan and China under the terms of which Japan was to be permitted to "reconstruct" or "transform" the line for use for a term of fifty years, and then turn it over to China.

The distance from Antung to Mukden is about 150 miles. The country traversed is rich and the line valuable commercially, but one of the main advantages gained from reconstruction will be the fact of through communication from Fusan, in Southern Korea, to Mukden and thence to the main trans-Siberian line and so to St. Petersburg and London.

Shortens Trip To Europe.

With an eight-hour sea trip from Japan to Fusan, the existing line from Fusan to Antung, the through connection to Mukden, and the new line to Mukden, the trip from Tokyo to the capitals of Europe would be very materially shortened. Furthermore, the line is strategically valuable to Japan.

It is to be made through traffic possible that Japan wants to change the Antung-Mukden line from the existing narrow gauge to the standard gauge now in use in Korea from Fusan to Antung and from Mukden to the west.

Japanese and Chinese engineers have practically agreed to certain necessary changes in the permanent way and Japan is ready to proceed with the reconstruction, but China is interposing difficulties.

ANSWER TO CONTEST AT BRISTOL, VA., IS FILED.

Bristol, Va., Aug. 6.—The answer to the petition of the prohibitionists asking that the recent local option election held here be either declared void or made to show a majority favoring prohibition, was filed today.

hibition by the elimination of more than 100 alleged libertines, was filed with Judge Kelly to-day. The answer of the "wets" denies many of the alleged allegations set forth in the petition of the prohibitionists, and counter-claims that the prohibitionists are made to disavow the demerit to the petition of the prohibitionists is also pending before Judge Kelly.

CURFEW LAW FOR GROWN PEOPLE.

Must Be Off Streets of Paragould Between Midnight and 4 A. M.

Paragould, Ark., Aug. 6.—As soon as the ordinance is signed by the Mayor and the required publication is made it will be unlawful to be on the streets of Paragould between midnight and 4 a. m., and punishable with a fine if a good and sufficient excuse is not forthcoming. A curfew law for children is already in effect, the youngsters scurrying home with the ringing of the 9 o'clock bell. In effect, the same for adults, however, is an innovation.

CHEEK TORN OUT BY BUGGY SHAFT.

Princeton, Ind., Aug. 6.—Ben Hunter, a young farmer living west of here, while walking home in the darkness last night, was struck in the mouth by the shaft of a buggy driven rapidly by Eph Kennard. One cheek was torn out and a terrible wound was made, the shaft of the buggy striking the flesh and out near one ear. The wound may prove fatal.

PROMISE INCREASE OF WAGES TO MEN

CHICAGO RAILWAYS HOPE TO AVOID STRIKE.

CONFERENCE WITH EMPLOYEES TO BE PROPOSED.

PUBLIC STATEMENT TO-DAY.

Chicago, Aug. 6.—Important wage concessions are to be granted to the street car employees of this city which, it is claimed by those who are watching the situation closely, will avert the threatened strike.

Thomas E. Milten, president of the Chicago City Railway Company, it is reported to-night, is ready to yield in the interest of peace.

A statement outlining the position of the company probably will be issued tomorrow, and it is said it will be of a conciliatory nature that the employees would lose public sympathy if they attempted to force a strike in the face of the company's offer.

The details of the company's offer of a wage advance will be determined in a conference with the union committee. The company will issue a public statement, probably tomorrow, which it is understood will show the basis on which the company is ready to negotiate.

The maximum scale of 30 cents an hour demanded by the men will be granted by the companies, it is said, provided they are given a specified time to reach that limit. The companies will insist that to give the increase now, during the rehabilitation of the line, is a financial impossibility, but they will grant a certain increase now and raise it to the full amount as the work progresses.

BURLY SETTLES WITH MR. KIRK

GIVES CHECK FOR $20,089.97, AND PAYS COSTS.

ACTION TAKEN AGAINST THE WISHES OF LEBUS.

PRICE HIGHEST QUOTATION.

Cincinnati, Aug. 6.—[Special.] The Kirk-Burley case, which has been a matter of contention between the Burley Tobacco Society of Kentucky and H. Kirk, of Cincinnati, since last December, was settled to-day in Cincinnati. The society paid to Mr. Kirk the sum of $20,089.97 and went on paper for the $3,000 in court costs which the case has incurred.

The settlement was made against the wishes of President Clarence E. Lebus, of the Burley Society. Last Tuesday a meeting of the executive committee of the society was held in Winchester, when President Lebus and others declared against a settlement. However, the majority voted for the motion and it passed.

The settlement was made on the basis of 1 1/2 cents per pound for the 125 hogheads of the 1907 crop of tobacco involved. The figure is the highest quotation which was made on the tobacco market last December, at which the Burley Society took steps which prevented Mr. Kirk from disposing of the product. The tobacco is still in the warehouse of the Cincinnati Tobacco Warehouse Company, but is now sold to the market.

The total weight is 149,085 lbs. A month ago the matter was taken upon by the courts and an arbitration committee of three appointed. Its agreement was to be made on the basis of the highest quotation of the decision of this tribunal, which was for Mr. Kirk, alleging that its procedure was irregular. In many instances the courts handed down this decision without authority. The son is principal of the Woodward High School in Cincinnati. Burial will be at Delaware on Monday.

DR. A. J. LYON, NOTED EDUCATOR, DEAD.

Chicago, Aug. 6.—A. J. Lyon, D. D., 81 years old, treasurer and trustee of Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware, Ohio, died to-day at the Evanston home of his son-in-law, Bishop W. E. McDowell, of the Methodist Episcopal Church. A widow and a son and daughter survive. The son is principal of the Woodward High School in Cincinnati. Burial will be at Delaware on Monday.

Will Speak in Denver.

PRESIDENT TAFT ON HIS VACATION

Departs From Washington For Beverly.

Itinerary of Swing Around the Country.

Will Travel 13,000 Miles In Two Weeks.

WILL USE REGULAR TRAINS.

Washington, Aug. 6.—President Taft left Washington late this afternoon for the summer Capitol at Beverly, Mass., and will not return to Washington until the middle of November next. Remaining at Beverly with his family until September 15, the President will start west on a tour that will embrace all the great States of the Union, and both of the Territories in the far Southwest.

This was a day of leave-taking at the White House. Scores of Senators, Representatives and Government officials called to say a brief word of goodbye to the President.

Cabinet Meeting Delayed.

So great was the crush of congressional callers that the usual Friday Cabinet meeting was delayed more than an hour. It was the last meeting the President will have with his official family until he returns to the Capitol in the late fall. Various members of the Cabinet will visit Beverly during the summer to take up matters respecting their various departments.

The President was accompanied to Beverly by Secretary Fred W. Carpenter, Assistant Secretary Rudolph Forester and Capt. Archibald Butt, his chief of staff. Mr. Smith, chief of the White House telephone service, and a force of executive office clerks were also taken to Beverly.

Itinerary Covers 13,000 Miles.

Before his departure the President made public a tentative outline of his trip through the West and South. It will be a wide swing, embracing a journey approximating 13,000 miles, as long as the cruise of the battleship fleet from Hampton Roads to the Straits of Magellan to San Francisco Bay. The trip will be one of the most extensive ever made by a President. It will be divided into two parts, the first to the West and the second to the South. The first part will be a tour of the West, embracing California, Oregon, Idaho, Nevada, Utah, Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, Colorado, Wyoming, Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Missouri, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware, New Jersey, New York, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Vermont, New Hampshire, Maine, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, and the Dominion of Wales.

Regular Train the Rule.

The President, accompanied by Secretary Forester, will leave Washington for Beverly, Mass., by the regular train. He will travel by the regular train, and will not use special trains. He will travel by the regular train, and will not use special trains. He will travel by the regular train, and will not use special trains.

Starting from the river shores of the north coast of Massachusetts, the President goes direct west from Beverly, Mass., to Boston, where he will spend the morning of September 15—his first birthday—and then board the car which practically will be a roving White House for two months. The President has accepted practically all the invitations that could be crowded into his itinerary, and will spend the trip, and his acceptance book is closed. There naturally will be many five and ten-minute stops not included in the regular itinerary and many brief little car-and-speeches, but the tour as now announced is to all intents and purposes complete.

First Stop in Chicago.

The President's first stop will be at Chicago, where he arrives shortly before noon on the morning of September 16 and spends the afternoon and evening, leaving at 3 a. m. Friday, September 17, for Madison, Wis., where he will spend the night and the morning of Saturday, September 18, leaving Madison at midday for Winona, Minn., with a brief stop at Portage, Wis., en route. He will spend Friday night at Winona, the President will reach Minneapolis early the morning of Saturday, September 19. The President will spend all of Saturday and Sunday in Minneapolis, leaving Sunday night at 8 p. m. in morning to reach Des Moines, Iowa, on the morning of September 20. Five hours will be spent in Des Moines and then the President moves on to Omaha where he will spend the late afternoon and evening.

Denver, Colo., will be reached the afternoon of September 21 and the President will go almost direct from his train to the State Capitol for a reception to be tendered by State officials, by the Chamber of Commerce, civic organizations, etc. At 8 p. m. the President will make an address in the Denver auditorium, where Mr. Bryan last year was nominated for the presidency.

The President and his party will break camp at Thomas P. Walsh at Wolhurst, near Denver for the morning of Wednesday, September 22, and then return to the city for the Chamber of Commerce banquet at 8 p. m. September 22, the President and his party will stop for an hour at Colorado Springs and then go on to Pueblo, where they will spend the evening they will be guests at the State Fair.

Sunday in Salt Lake.

The morning of September 23 will find the President at Glenwood Springs for a brief visit. On the morning of September 24, the President will visit Montrose to have a look at the great Gunnison tunnel of the West. Colorado irrigation project. Returning to Denver, the President will turn to the journey westward, the President will arrive at Salt Lake City, Utah, Friday afternoon, September 24, to remain there until Sunday afternoon, the 26th, when the party leaves over the Utah and Pacific for Pocatello, Idaho, and Butte, Mont. The latter city being reached Monday, September 27, at 6:40 a. m. After spending half a day in Butte, the President and his party will reach Helena, Spokane, Wash., will be reached early Thursday morning, the 29th, and will spend the night and the morning of September 30 at the city. The forenoon of the 30th will be spent at North Yakima and the party will arrive at Seattle at 8:15 that evening.

Two Days At Exposition.

President Taft will spend two days, September 30 and October 1, "doing up" the Alaska-Yukon Exposition, leaving Seattle late the evening of the second day, arriving at Portland, Ore., on the morning of the 3rd, and will spend the night and the morning of the 4th at Portland. The party will leave Portland on the morning of the 5th, and will reach Seattle on the morning of the 6th. (Concluded on 2d Page, 7th Column.)

THAW'S MOTHER LAST WITNESS

Closes the Case With Bitter Words To Jerome.

Summing-up Arguments To Be Made To-day.

Justice Mills Promises Decision On Thursday.

PRISONER IS VERY CONFIDENT.

White Plains, N. Y., Aug. 6.—Harry K. Thaw's latest struggle to regain his freedom will end to-morrow. The submission of testimony in his hearing before Justice Isaac N. Mills closed this afternoon and all that remains is the final arguments of the attorneys. Justice Mills will file his decision with the County Clerk here on the morning of Thursday, August 12.

Several possibilities confront Thaw. The court may grant his plea and make him absolutely free. It may decide that he has not established his sanity and refuse to interfere, in which case the State authorities will probably send him back to Matteawan Hospital for the Criminal Insane.

But Justice Mills has further discretionary powers. He may feel that the young man's mental condition is still in doubt, and for that reason delay a final order, meanwhile paroling Thaw in the custody of some officer or possibly on his own recognizance in the case of his family. Or he may declare Thaw insane, but, moved by his mother's complaint regarding his surroundings at Matteawan send him to some other State hospital not peopled by criminals.

Thaw is confident.

Thaw left the courtroom this afternoon with jaunty step. The strain of the last four weeks, during which he has submitted personally to fourteen hours of cross-examination, was not apparent either in his face or his bearing. At no time during the proceedings has he expressed anything but satisfaction with the results and confidence in the success of his cause. "I am sure," he said, "that I shall be free."

The evidence presented in behalf of Thaw closed to-day with a dramatic outburst by his mother, Mrs. Mary Copley Thaw, who was the final witness. Her last words were a denunciation of William Traversa Jerome, Thaw's father-in-law, as a "criminal" and a "scoundrel." She said that she had never known him to do anything but harm to her family, and that she had never known him to do anything but harm to her family.

Attack On Jerome.

"I brought in the names of those who attended that dinner to my son," she said, "because of the statement of Mr. Jerome regarding the company Harry was accustomed to keep. I do not have any special enmity toward Mr. Jerome, but he certainly has not behaved in a Christian way. Mr. Jerome always talked about Harry as a frequent attendant of the tenderloin, when he knows as well as anyone that my boy never went to the tenderloin. He has a patterned suit on his back, and a patterned suit on his back, and a patterned suit on his back."

Indications That Legislature Will Refuse To Pass State-Wide Bill.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 6.—With returns from the primary still incomplete, indications are to-night that Judge William Hodges Mann, of Nottingham, has been nominated for Governor over Harry St. George Tucker, of Rock Bridge, by a majority of from 3,000 to 5,000.

The principal new witness to-day was Roger O'Mara, formerly chief of police and of Pittsburg, and secretly employed by the Thaws as a detective in Harry's case. He testified in corroboration of the stories about Stanford White.

Allenists Examined.

The greater part of the day was devoted to a re-examination of Thaw's sanity. Jerome, at a frequent expert with every device of the skilled cross-examiner. He roused the ire of Dr. Britton D. Evans by asking the question, "What is the object of the medical expert witnesses delivered yesterday by Gov. Franklin Fort, of New Jersey, and the superintendent of the New Jersey State Insane Hospital at Morris Plains. The expert who he declared to get into personalities."

Dr. Isham G. Harris, of the Poughkeepsie State Asylum, also received a grilling, but both alienists stuck to their assertion that whatever Thaw's mental condition might have been when he shot Stanford White, Harry Thaw was sane to-day. They left the stand unshaken.

Argument To-day.

Jerome will sum up first to-morrow morning and Mr. Morschauer will follow. Both say their closing speeches will be brief, and the case will probably be in Justice Mills' hands by noon. The day opened with Roger O'Mara, former chief of detectives in Pittsburg and what he told him agreed with Thaw as a private detective, as the first witness.

Thaw was commissioned by Thaw to investigate his charges against Stanford White. Mr. Morschauer called him to-day to the stand yesterday by Thaw.

Corroborates Thaw's Story.

The witness related his experience in 1907 with the girl, said to be now a prominent actress. He said that he had already told Mr. O'Mara said he saw both this girl and her mother, and what they told him agreed with Thaw's assertions.

"Did you believe this was true?" asked Jerome.

"Yes. It looked plausible, and I saw no reason why she should tell me this story if it was not true," said O'Mara.

O'Mara said the girl told him that White was preventing her from getting a position at any theater.

District Attorney Jerome asked the witness if he had ever before the first trial heard stories regarding immoral practices by Thaw. Mr. O'Mara said he had not.

The detective said he had read many letters from women to Thaw's attorneys.

"Generally," he remarked, "they ended by wanting some money, and I would tear them up and throw them away."

"I did not get over $2,000 in all. I was here one week during the first trial and during part of the second."

"Were you ever called upon to settle matters in Pittsburg in which Harry Thaw was involved?"

"Never."

"Or elsewhere?"

"Or elsewhere?"

"Did this story of an actress, experienced in the ways of New York, that one of the most prominent men in New York tried to wrong her in a room in Madison Square Garden tower, seem true to your sophisticated mind?"

"Yes, I thought it was probable."

O'Mara was excused, and Mr. Morschauer called Mrs. Mary Copley Thaw to the stand. She was asked to explain Detective O'Mara's position.

"Mr. O'Mara came into this case," she said, "because he said he wanted to do all he could for Mr. Thaw's boy. I think his position in this case is that of Milton's Angels," and she quoted:

"They also serve who only stand and wait."

Mrs. Thaw then produced a chart showing 308 members of the family, including every descendant of three generations' great-grandfather. The paper was offered in evidence. She named the names of the family, and named Harriet Thaw, brother and sister, and County Clerk here on the morning of Thursday, August 12.

NASHVILLE MERCHANT SLAIN IN STORE

FOUND BY WIFE AND DAUGHTER WITH KNIFE WOUND IN HIS HEART.

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 6.—Herman Henning, a dry goods merchant, was murdered about 7:30 o'clock to-night in his store at 303 North Second avenue and his cash drawer rifled. The place is close to the corner of Church street and almost in the very heart of the wholesale business district. Yes, the murderers escaped, leaving nothing but a trail of blood and a dead man.

Henning's wife and daughter started for a brief walk, leaving him seated in front of his store. Twenty minutes later they returned to find him dead on the floor of the store, with a knife wound in his heart. There were no evidences of a struggle. Henning had been in business at the same place for twenty-six years and, so far as known, had no enemies.

PLAYGROUNDS

Accomplish Much In Way of Reclaiming Children.

ELEVEN HAVE BEEN ESTABLISHED IN LOUISVILLE.

RECREATION LEAGUE HAMPERED BY LACK OF FUNDS.

WORK OF THE INSTITUTION.

Operating eleven playgrounds in different sections of Louisville, the Recreation League is in charge of a work that is of the utmost importance to the city. The saving of the child by giving him an opportunity to improve physically, and by giving him a place where he may indulge in clean, healthful play and make it unnecessary to stay on the streets, where there is every chance for the learning of vice and crime, is the work which the league has undertaken, and which is aiding in putting Louisville in the front rank of cities in the matter of the welfare of its people.

The Recreation League has grown as many as twenty playgrounds in the city have been done, from the work of the Woman's Club. About nine years ago, a small playground was started on East Main street, this was in charge of Mrs. Mary E. Anderson, then the superintendent of the Neighborhood House, who, in the limited means at her hand, was very successful. Mrs. Anderson saw that the need for enlarging the work existed, and to this end she called upon the members of the league whom she thought would be interested in the movement.

Effect Organization.

These immediately effected an organization and elected officers, the first being Mrs. Anderson, president, and Mrs. W. H. White, secretary. The league then moved to the Neighborhood House yard was utilized as a playground. This is one of the best equipped of the city's playgrounds. It is used by the children of that large district in the southwest part of the city, which is known as "The Hill."

Two of the playgrounds, at Shelby Park and Elliott Park, are without any equipment at all. The latter is the only playground that is offered to the children of the region it is supposed to serve. This is not the fault of the league, however, which is unable to fit up the grounds because of a practically empty treasury.

At a special meeting held last night, the league's platform would in all probability be adopted. It is not ready to be published Monday or Tuesday, he said. The league is now in the hands of the children of the city, which is known as "The Hill."

Reading Good Books.

The children who have been unusually interested in the stories of Miss Nave have learned that stories and books are not only fun, but they are also a source of knowledge and pleasure. The children of the league are now in the hands of the children of the city, which is known as "The Hill."

In order to reach those of the older children who are employed during the day, classes are held in Central Park, at the corner of Central and Third streets, and in the Neighborhood House. At the former is a class of young women under the charge of Miss Olivia Henderson.

Needs of Colored Children.

The league has reached the greater part of the city with playgrounds for the white children, but one of its greatest problems is that of the colored children. It has at present only three grounds for them, leaving a great part of the population untouched.

One of the grounds is in the rear yard of the Presbyterian mission, at Preston and Pearl streets, which is known as "The Hill." It is a small, but it is a place where the children of the city can play and have the greatest satisfaction. Their task is by no means an easy one, as it is to find a place where they can play and have the greatest satisfaction.

The league has a staff of supervisors, at the head of which is Austin G. Johnson, who was elected to that position. Under him are eighteen playground instructors of whom at least one is at each park. All of these have shown a peculiar talent for their work and have had the greatest satisfaction. Their task is by no means an easy one, as it is to find a place where they can play and have the greatest satisfaction.

FIRST WARD

Women Democrats Organize For Barbecue Work.

MEAN TO HELP OUT WITH THEIR COOKING.

OUTLINE PLANS IN LETTER TO THE COMMITTEE.

GIVE ENTHUSIASTIC SUPPORT.

In a letter to the committee in charge of the project, the women of the first ward have outlined their plans for the big Jeffersonian barbecue to be held on the Kentucky State Fair grounds August 31 and September 1. The letter came from Miss Adelaide Hillier, of 1325 East Washington street, and says in effect that her co-workers will, from now until the opening day, devote their best efforts to securing a supply of foodstuffs for First Ward Democrats, who are expected to send a large representation.

Miss Hillier advised the committee that since the idea of a women's auxiliary was advanced several days ago the enthusiasm in the first ward over the coming event is spreading in every direction. It has increased upon those few who have held back and it is predicted that the organization will deserve much of the credit for whatever success is realized. The women of the first ward are expected to send a large representation.

To Send Big Delegation.

In a letter to the committee yesterday, L. W. Arnett, a prominent attorney of Covington, Ky., sets forth the attitude of the Democratic voters in the Sixth district toward the big rally. Mr. Arnett says that all kinds of inquiries are being made as to when the celebration will be held, what the official program will be, and what the committee will do to make the event a success. He closes by saying that a representative delegation of Democrats will be present at the fair grounds on the opening day.

At a special meeting held Thursday night, held in the headquarters of the First Ward Democratic Club at 1325 East Washington street, all the members of the club were present. The meeting was held to discuss the coming rally and to make plans for the barbecue in cooperation with the general committee. They all pledged their support to make the event a success.

During the last two weeks the committee has experienced but little trouble securing contributions of meat and other edibles for the barbecue. In fact, a day passed that some local business man or private individual does not donate something or other without ever being asked to do so. In fact, the voluntary contributions will come very close to outnumbering the solicited gifts.

The following is a list of the contributors who have been given out by the committee yesterday: Jake Greenberg, one steer; James Sweeney, quarters of three dozen chickens and one sheep; Philip Gaudin, one sheep; George Horning, one lamb.

FLAHERTY IS IN
SPLendid FORMKansas City Pitcher Proves
Too Strong For the Colonels.

PUTTMANN TWIRLS POORLY.

Gives Three Free Tickets To First,
Allows a Hit and Packard Is Sent To Rescue.

SALM IS SHOWING UP WELL.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 6.—(Special.)—Patrick Flaherty, the local pitcher, had the Colonels "on his hip" and the Blues got away with the second series by a score of 4 to 0, only two Louisville men reaching third base and Patrick saw to it that none carved his initials on the home plate. Pat was more about that hollow exhibition of the day before. He allowed the hostilities only five hits and kept them well watered until the ninth, when two singles were bunched without avail.

Puttmann decorated the slab for the Colonels until his liberality taxed the good disposition of H. Fetter to the fifth. It was in that session that the Blues secured four tallies, sewing the game up in the home talent's win column. Three passes and a hit earned Puttmann a ticket to the bench. Until the fifth Patrick had held the Blues to one hit, Packard went to the rescue and pitched good ball.

The big blow-up happened this way: Hettling walked and took second on Bruesch's sacrifice. Ritter walked. Flaherty tried to outguess the pinch hit, the throw to third. Ritter then pilfered the second. Shannon walked and the bases were full. A safety off by Olson and Ritter almost stepped on Hettling's heels getting to second. Puttmann was taken out and Packard sent to the rescue. Beckley caught one for a single and Hettling went to Shay counting. Hallman grounded out.

With one out in the first, Woodruff got on first when he fumbled the ball. A drive. A wild pitch put Woodruff on second. Delahanty lined to Hallman, who doubled "Woody" off second. With two out in the fourth, Salm singled, but Sullivan failed to catch the pitch. The fifth with a clean double and advanced to third when Quinn sacrificed. Puttmann was taken out and Packard sent to the rescue. Beckley caught one for a single and Hettling went to Shay counting. Hallman grounded out.

The Colonels got two men on base in the ninth, with none out, but fast fielding kept them away from the plate. Salm walked. Sullivan bled the pinch hit, and it looked as though Pat Flaherty would have to put something on his ball to get out of the hole. Flaherty pitched to Olson hit Hettling, who caught Salm at third. Quinn grounded out to Beckley. The best Pitcher Flaherty was a grander to K. City.

CHAT OF THE GAME.

John McCloskey, like Bill Armour, is regarded as an unusual judge of a young pitcher. Consequently, he has been declared that Ames Strunk is one of the cleverest youngsters he ever saw and in a year or so will make a wonderful pitcher, the rest of the team will agree.

"Strunk is young yet," said McCloskey, "and has a lot to learn, but he is a bright youth and is fast picking up a good general knowledge of the game. He will have to do to all you boys. Ames is a good boy, without any bad habits, and is bound to succeed."

Discussing baseball in general, McCloskey made the remark that pitching was 75 percent of baseball to-day. "That's the reason why I like to see a pitcher who is well equipped with competent twirlers, especially men like McGilvray, who were strong enough to work as often as you wanted them."

"People come to me and tell me that I am working McGilvray too much and that I will wear him out. But I know better than anybody just how strong 'Stoney's' arm is, and you can gamble that I am going to keep him in the line of his whip. McGilvray and Dougherty have been my only pitchers for some time, and I have had to use them both. McGilvray has been sick more or less, but I think that it has been nervousness more than anything else."

If it's a very plain task to call attention to the standing of the Minneapolis and Milwaukee clubs, who are home for an extended stay. While this pair of teams is not so very far in advance of the others, they lead the league in one and it looks for all the world as though they are to continue as the principal factors right through to the end.

Looks now as though Columbus, Kansas City, Toledo and Indianapolis are capable of meeting the requirements of the second division berth. If these outfits are to get back in the running they will have to stay hot until they knock it up to the finish. From the character of the four clubs, it doesn't appear as though they will have enough to seriously threaten the leaders.

An unusual play came up at Columbus the other day in the tenth inning, and Umpire Hayes' interpretation of the rules allowed the Saints to get the winning run. As soon as the ball was pitched, at second, with one gone. Wright hit a long fly and Boucher started madly for it. Murray was on third and was ready to go home. Boucher was doubled by a second, but Hayes declared that Murray scored before Boucher was retired. The secret of the decision is that it wasn't a force play.

Milwaukee players were discussing the strength of a club made up of A. J. Pate, the pitcher, and the rest of the team. Pate was the only one of the athletes to contend that it would make a good team. Pate was the only one of the athletes to contend that it would make a good team. Pate was the only one of the athletes to contend that it would make a good team.

This is a pretty toppy crowd, but this aggregation would make the first-chosen outfit. The crowd was made up of A. J. Pate, the pitcher, and the rest of the team. Pate was the only one of the athletes to contend that it would make a good team. Pate was the only one of the athletes to contend that it would make a good team. Pate was the only one of the athletes to contend that it would make a good team.

warriors might not be as classy as the first picked, but it would play fast, ready ball.

The sending of Paul Davidson to Omaha by the Indianapolis club was just as expected. This outfielder played just about good enough ball last summer to insure him a further trial this year. However, he did not clear out the promise of 1938, and when the club got going badly and changes were needed he had to go. "Shoddy" Shaw, a pitcher, has also been given his freedom.

Charley Carr says he isn't discouraged over the showing of his men, and predicts that the club will do a lot better on the road. "We have been the victims of a most unfortunate combination of circumstances," Carr says. "But we are still fighting and we are determined to show the pennant winners last year are not quitters."

MEET MONDAY TO PERFECT PLANS FOR THE OUTING.

Members of Builders' Exchange To Make Merry On Labor Day—Baseball Game On Program.

Definite arrangements for the big annual outing to be held under the auspices of the Builders' Exchange of Louisville on Labor day will be made at a meeting of the entertainment committee next Monday at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The program for the celebration likely will be completed at the meeting and a suitable place on the outskirts of the city for the outing probably will be selected.

It is planned by the committee to make the outing this year one of the largest and most enjoyable events ever held by the exchange in honor of its members. A number of prominent business men, builders, contractors and subcontractors, will compete with each other for prizes in a dozen or more athletic events of various character, from a sack race to a peanut-rolling contest. The most important athletic event on the program, however, will be a baseball game in the afternoon between two strong lines, the members of which have been challenging each other repeatedly since the last game at the outing last year. The two teams have already been organized and arrangements are now being made to purchase handsome new uniforms especially for the occasion.

The entertainment committee is made up as follows:

Arvid Norall, chairman; Joseph Ingram, E. G. Heintzick, Al Bourlier, Gus Albrecht.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the exchange yesterday afternoon Harry Murray and C. L. Peckinpah were taken in as new members.

AWARD CONTRACT FOR WESTERN INTERCEPTOR.

Work For This Section of Comprehensive Sewer System Goes To St. Louis Concern.

Following a letting held in the office of the Louisville Sewerage Commission in the Equitable building yesterday afternoon, a contract providing for the construction of the western intercept sewer was awarded to T. B. Jones & Co., of St. Louis. Only two construction firms submitted proposals for the contract, the successful bidder, Jones & Co., of St. Louis, and T. J. O'Connell, of Boston, Mass.

According to the contract, and the specifications for the sewer, the system will extend from Shawnee Park on the Ohio River to Greenwood avenue, a distance of 3,500 feet. The contract represents a sum of $50,000 and provides that work shall begin on the sewer in ten days and that it shall be completed inside of one year.

SAVES DAUGHTER'S LIFE BY SMOTHERING FLAMES.

With coolness and precision Mrs. Margaret Calloway, of 444 East Market street, smothered the flames which enveloped her little daughter Idelle, 7 years of age, yesterday morning at about 10 o'clock, by wrapping the child in a blanket which was lying nearby.

The child was reclining a few feet from a stove, and thinking that the fire had entirely died out she threw coal-oil upon the kindling. The oil flamed up and leaped over her clothes.

Her mother, who was standing close by, quickly wrapped the child in a blanket and smothered the flames. The child was seriously injured, but the face and neck, but is not in a dangerous condition.

Dr. Andrew Kramer was called and deemed the injuries. He says that the girl did not inhale the flames and that she will soon recover.

MR. ASHTON'S BODY TAKEN TO FLEMINGSBURG, KY.

The body of Charles H. Ashton, who died Thursday night at 10:25 o'clock at his home, 144 Kents avenue, in Crescent Hill, was taken to Flemingsburg, Ky., yesterday afternoon for burial. Mr. Ashton was 41 years of age and was employed by W. B. Inman & Co., a bookkeeper. He had been ill for some time. He was the son of the late Charles H. Ashton, who was at one time circuit clerk of Fleming county. He was married to Mrs. William Armstrong Ashton and Henrietta Dudley Ashton.

TO GIVE FREE CONCERT AT CENTRAL PARK TO-DAY.

The Board of Park Commissioners have arranged for a concert to be given this afternoon from 3 o'clock to 6 o'clock at Central Park. A delightful program has been arranged and it is expected that there will be a large attendance.

The band consists of the following:

Mr. Ashton was a well-known resident of the city and his death was a great loss to the community.

BEARS A BARRIER.

Newell C. Rathbun Already On Parole.

RELEASED FROM REFORMATORY THREE MONTHS AGO.

'SQUIRE HAY FINED ON CHARGE OF MATRIMONIAL RUNNING.

FILES BOND FOR AN APPEAL.

Newell C. Rathbun, who was sentenced to the Indiana Reformatory by the Circuit Court at Jeffersonville on December 24, 1901, to serve from two to twenty-one years under a conviction to the charge of manslaughter, it being held that he had killed Charles C. Goodman in the Falls City Hotel, in Jeffersonville, on the night of November 6, 1901, was not up before the board of trustees at Middletown, Ind., yesterday, for the reason that he is not an inmate of the institution and has not been for three months. This was known only to those who are supposed to keep their lips sealed as to what is going on at the Reformatory.

The fact that Rathbun is gone is as much news as the publication yesterday that he had confessed some time ago that he administered laudanum to Goodman to make him sleep so his body could be cremated after the hotel had been touched off by fire. The name was given him. Yesterday, Maj. D. C. Peyton, general superintendent of the Indiana Reformatory, was asked if Rathbun would be up for trial. The inquirer was referred to Dr. H. C. Sharp, a member of the board of trustees. Dr. Sharp said that Rathbun was on the eligible list that was to be considered during the day.

Further investigation brought out the fact that Rathbun had been quietly paroled at the meeting of the board of trustees on April 5, employment found for him and he was sent away from the Reformatory. This, however, is not considered strange, as it is a rule at the Indiana Reformatory not to give out information regarding prisoners who are paroled. In the case of Rathbun it was thought something would leak out, but it did not. In fact, only those who came directly in contact with him knew he was going to be paroled months before his departure that his confession was told in confidence.

Magistrate Hay Fined.

Judge Harry C. Polindexter, of the Jeffersonville City Court, yesterday morning fined Magistrate Charles S. Hay and William Anderson $5 each on the charge of being matrimonial runners and each filed a bond for $500 to appear in court on Wednesday. Magistrate Hay was complained against by Anderson on last Tuesday evening and charged with being a matrimonial runner. The complaint against Anderson was made by Oscar Hay on July 25, and the trial was only July 27, it having been continued on the Circuit Court. Magistrate Hay was complained against by Anderson on last Tuesday evening and charged with being a matrimonial runner. The complaint against Anderson was made by Oscar Hay on July 25, and the trial was only July 27, it having been continued on the Circuit Court.

After the cases had been disposed of, Capt. C. H. and his assistant, the police department would take the view of the findings toward enforcing the law. He said arrests would be made as to persons who were thought the proper proof to convict could be secured, but this had been the trouble, and he had been unable to show persons had been accused it was useless to make arrests. He said someone would have to be in the rear of the persons accused to make the proof positive.

Now Like Sunday-School.

John S. Pernett, former sheriff of Clark county, Indiana, who is now living at Gary, Ind., was in Jeffersonville for a short time yesterday afternoon on his way to his home. He was asked about the recent case of a five place, where, with Mrs. Pernett, he will visit his mother and other relatives in the next two weeks. When asked about the recent case of a five place, where, with Mrs. Pernett, he will visit his mother and other relatives in the next two weeks. When asked about the recent case of a five place, where, with Mrs. Pernett, he will visit his mother and other relatives in the next two weeks.

At the time the city voted dry there were 115 saloons doing business in Gary, Mr. Pernett said. Some of the proprietors closed their places, disposed of their stock on hand and fixtures, while others left the places stand as they were when he left them. In a short time some of the former licensed saloons began to sell soft drinks and near beer over the counters where whiskey and beer had formerly been dispensed. Gradually they began to set out any kind of intoxicating liquor and the city was again a lawless place. He said that the city was again a lawless place. He said that the city was again a lawless place.

Convicts Disappointed.

A change of administration at the Indiana Reformatory, which was expected to result in a wholesale recommendation of paroles at the meeting of the board of trustees yesterday, as some had anticipated. Many of the inmates, especially those who have been there for a long time, were under the impression that the gates would be ready to open to them on September 1. There are numerous "shut-ins" who will have served their term of years and are anxious to get out. The board of trustees, however, has decided to keep the gates closed for the present.

The August eligible list consisted of fifty-five men, and of this number thirty-six were recommended for parole at the end of the month if positions could be secured for them. The work of the parole court was not different from sessions held before the change of administration, and it is not likely the old rule will be deviated from in the near future. The early part of the day was consumed in considering the claim of the Union Carriage and Wagon Company for $3,450.00 in damages. The claim is in course of adjustment and it is believed a settlement will be satisfactory to all concerned.

NOTES OF THE NEWS FROM JEFFERSONVILLE.

—Amos B. Stacey, John H. Stacey, Melcher H. Stacey and Jonas G. Stacey have conveyed to John H. Stacey four tracts of land, aggregating 45 acres, in grant 33, for a total consideration of $2,575.

—None of the tomato canneries in the county has yet begun operations for the season on account of the crop, which is being late but bright. Later in the month, however, it is expected better conditions will prevail.

—Charles Grant, who left this city two weeks ago to go to Portland, Ore., to work on the coast, has returned. He found conditions difficult from what he expected and decided Jeffersonville was good enough for him, and will remain here.

—No purchaser has yet been found for the bonds to be issued by the county for the purpose of securing funds for building pikes in Wood township. The law requires the bonds must bring $200, but the best offer so far made is $150.

—The financial condition of the suburb of front of the city, which the tax levy has been reduced from 1.15 on the $100 property valuation to $1.06. The new board of assessors at Middletown, which has been approved, and all bills are being paid.

—Chris A. Schuler, an administrator of the estate of Samuel C. Conley, has filed an inventory and appraisal of the personal property, as made by Allen A. Hutzell and Benjamin E. Conn, the four brothers and sons of the late Samuel C. Conley, who died at the time of his death Mr. Conley was more than 80 years of age.

—Eliza McFarland, a young man of good appearance, was in the City Court yesterday on his way to the court. He was charged with being a matrimonial runner. He was charged with being a matrimonial runner. He was charged with being a matrimonial runner.

—Following brief but touching services by the Rev. C. L. Truby, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, at the family residence, 213 Locust street, yesterday afternoon, the body of O. W. West, Sr., was laid to rest in Walnut Ridge cemetery. Many of the old friends of Mr. West attended the final rites, and there were many floral offerings.

—High School Teachers Elected. New Castle, Ky., Aug. 6.—[Special.]—The following teachers were to-day elected for the New Castle High School: Prof. I. C. Reubell, principal; M. C. Raloff, Mrs. Sid Douthett, Miss Nancy Buford and Miss Mae Billston, music.

—SCALD DISEASE PUZZLED DOCTORS. Began with a Little Pimple—Itched and Spread Till Whole Head was Raw—Hair Fell Out in Bunches—Suffered Three Years and Cure Seemed Impossible.

IMMEDIATE RELIEF AND EASY CURE BY CUTICURA

"My disease started with a little pimple on my head. Then it began to itch. I scratched and scratched, the worse it grew until it spread all over my head. So I went to the doctor. I continued his treatment for some time but, finding no results, I decided to change and try some other remedy. Little water began to grow on my head. I would wash it every day but it grew raw as a piece of beef and my hair commenced to fall out in bunches. So I changed doctors. This doctor prescribed a wash and a salve. My head at this time was so sore I could not touch it. After trying several doctors and many patent medicines, nothing would cure it and I lost much time from work.

"Then I decided to go to the hospital. Several doctors were called in to look at it, and after some consultation they said that I had scald disease in its worst stage. They began to treat it but it improved very slowly. For over three years I was a sufferer from this disease. I thought all hopes of a permanent cure were impossible. A friend of mine, upon seeing the condition of my head—which was a mass of running corruption—asked me to try Cuticura. I told him nothing would do me any good, but being very anxious to be cured, I decided to try them. The first treatment with Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills brought immediate relief. My hair became alive and stopped falling out. All the scales left and now I am perfectly well and have a full head of hair. I can truthfully say that it was entirely due to the use of the Cuticura Remedies and I recommend them to all sufferers from any skin disease. George E. Jefferson, 1518 Reed St., Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 1909.

BLOOD POISON.

Results In Death of Philip Bence In New Albany.

WAS SUPERINTENDENT OF THE COUNTY POOR ASYLUM.

HARRY LEE CUTS DEEP GASH IN FOOT.

HOLINESS CAMP MEETING.

Philip Bence, who had been suffering from blood poisoning at the home of Mrs. Bence's sister, Mrs. Henrietta Slovensky, 719 East Market street, New Albany, died early yesterday morning. Mr. Bence had been suffering for several weeks from the fracture of two ribs, when he was prostrated by the heat and blood poison developed. He was admitted to the hospital in the hope of saving his life. He rallied from the operation, but he was too weak to withstand the shock, and he gradually sank until the end.

Mr. Bence was born fifty-six years ago. He was the son of the late Hiram Bence, one of the prominent and substantial farmers on the River road below New Albany. He lived on his farm below that city until 14 years ago, when he received the appointment to the position of superintendent of the county poor asylum, which he held for several years.

—The Board of Metropolitan Police Commissioners at New Albany have appointed Jacob Fess, Jr., a patrolman, and Sam James McLaughlin, a sergeant, to the rank of Captain. When the police force was reorganized last spring, giving Mayor Jacob Best the appointing power instead of the board, Fess was superintendent of the force. No charges were preferred against him while he was in office. He was made up at that time, he was not retained. As he made a most capable officer, his friends have been making every effort to have him reinstated. Capt. McLaughlin has also been a member of the force since the Metropolitan system was established and deserves the mark of appreciation he has received.
